

Nacton Church of England Primary Spring Term News 2025

This term all the children benefited from a drama workshop. Each was planned around one of the curriculum areas being taught this term. Stoats class imagined they were aboard the Titanic on that fatal night while children in Foxes class were evacuated and faced being sent all over the country. Hedgehogs class theme was 'traditional tales.' The children loved the experience.

